

Comprehension of Complex Sentences

My mother said I could have a party for my birthday. She said I could choose to go bowling, roller skating or swimming for my party. I wanted to go swimming at the lake, but it was too cold. We went bowling instead.

Where did we go for my party?

We went bowling.

Anne, Tim, and Angelo are in math class together. They are sitting in the same row. Anne is sitting behind Tim and Tim is sitting behind Angelo.

Who is sitting first in the row?

Angelo is first in the row.

Sally told Sue she got a new puppy and it has spots. Sue told David that Sally got a new puppy that is really cute. David told his friend Jeff that Sally has a new puppy.

Who talked about Sally's new puppy

Sally, Sue and David talked about the new puppy.

Comprehension of Complex Sentences

My friend gave me a package to deliver to his grandma. He told me not to knock on the door unless the light was on inside. When I came to the house, I could see a light through the window.

What should I do?

You should knock on the door.

My dad told me if I cleaned up my room then I could go to the baseball game. My friends came to pick me up, but I was still cleaning my room.

What should I tell my friends?

I need to finish cleaning my room and then I will join them at the baseball game.

There were 3 kinds of balloons at the fair. There were round ones, long ones, and short ones with ears. My uncle said he would buy me either a long one or a short one.

How many did I get?

I got one balloon.

Comprehension of Complex Sentences

We were throwing balls in the gym.
My teacher told me to throw the basketball or the baseball.

How many balls did I throw?

I threw one ball.

Three cars are parked in the parking lot. There is a green one, a blue one, and a red one. All of the cars work except the green one.

Which one is not working?

The green one isn't working.

My little sister is riding her bike behind me. My mother is riding her bike in front of me.

Where am I?

I am between my mother and little sister. I am in the middle.

